Conference Overview

InfoPlus Events LLC successfully organized the 20th edition of the Annual Meeting of the Middle East Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery, held at the InterContinental Hotel, Dubai Festival City, from April 11 to 13, 2025.

This prestigious conference represented a pivotal milestone in the region's medical calendar, convening over 700 distinguished delegates from 35 countries. Widely acknowledged as one of the foremost events in the field of otolaryngology, the gathering served as a dynamic platform for scientific exchange, professional networking and the dissemination of cutting-edge advancements. Its continued growth and success reaffirm its role as a cornerstone of education, collaboration and innovation in the specialty, both within the Middle East and on the global stage.

Dr. Latifah AlMakoshi, Chair of the 20th Middle East Academy of Otolaryngology and Assistant Professor of Pediatric Otolaryngology, emphasized the significance of this landmark conference. She highlighted that this international meeting attracted some of the most esteemed and accomplished surgeons from around the world. For three days, the event featured in-depth discussions on the latest advancements across multiple subspecialties, including hearing health, cochlear implants and rehabilitation for hearing-impaired patients, chronic sinus conditions, sleep apnea and balance disorders. Presenters shared cutting-edge research and ground breaking discoveries, particularly in the areas of otolaryngology and sleep apnea in both children and adult populations. A key focus of the conference was also the mentorship and development of emerging talent in the field, reinforcing a commitment to future excellence.

Dr. Muaaz Tarabichi, Co-Chair of the conference, consistently underscored the Academy's commitment to fostering the next generation of leaders in otolaryngology. In line with this vision, 30 outstanding ORL residents and young otolaryngologists from around the world were selected and fully sponsored — including travel, accommodation, and registration — to participate in the prestigious Heinz Stammberger Resident Research Competition. This initiative not only provided them with invaluable practical experience and an international platform to showcase their research, but also recognized their excellence with additional cash prizes, further reinforcing their engagement and growth in the field.

Alongside the Heinz Stammberger Resident Research Competition, the conference also hosted an e-Poster Competition aimed at encouraging wider participation and academic contribution. All accepted e-Poster presenters received a registration discount, along with an on-site cash award of AED 500, providing financial support to facilitate their involvement in the conference and recognize their scholarly efforts.

In addition to the two abstract submission categories, the conference also added a Lecture Proposal category. This submission is intended for speakers with substantial expertise in a specific topic or subspecialty, as the selection process is highly competitive. Applicants are required to submit a summary of their proposed lecture along with an updated CV.

Furthermore, the 20th anniversary of the ME-OTO Academy Conference was highlighted by the successful launch of the inaugural World Congress on Eustachian Tube Research and Interventions. Taking place simultaneously at the same venue, this significant international event brought together leading experts from around the globe, establishing it as a distinctive and first-of-its-kind congress in the field.

The congress provided a unique platform to engage with top specialists, gain valuable insights into the latest research, and explore cutting-edge advancements in the diagnosis and treatment of Eustachian tube disorders.

ACCREDITING ORGANIZATION

ACCREDITATION INFORMATION:

The 20th ME-OTO Academy conference is accredited by the Dubai Health Authority (DHA).

19.50 CPD credit points by Dubai Health Authority (DHA)

CONFERENCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

OBJECTIVES

- This one-of-a-kind conference showcased the expertise and knowledge of world-renowned surgeons in the fields of ear, sinus, anterior skull base, and rhinoplasty surgeries
- The event provided a comprehensive overview of the surgical anatomy of the ear and sinuses, as well as various techniques and approaches in endoscopic sinus surgery (ESS), anterior skull base, and rhinoplasty surgery
- Faculty members guided participants from initial consultations to the management of the most challenging cases
- The conference featured didactic lectures and panel discussions, enhancing the educational experience for attendees

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- Attendees gained Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit hours
- It was one of the largest ENT gatherings in the Middle East region
- The meeting provided an opportunity for ENT colleagues to share their clinical and practical knowledge, improve and expand their clinical skills, present their scientific research, and enhance the quality of patient care

The three-day conference featured a comprehensive and high-quality program, consisting of 253 lectures. The event included 6 parallel tracks dedicated to scientific sessions.

The scientific program was categorized in the following manner:

HALL A WORLD CONGRESS ON EUSTACHIAN TUBE RESEARCH AND INTERVENTIONS

HALL B - HALL F

- FACIAL PLASTIC SURGERY
- PEDIATRIC OTOLARYNGOLOGY
- RHINOLOGY
- COCHLEAR IMPLANT SURGERY

- VESTIBULAR MASTER CLASS
- SLEEP APNEA SURGERY
- HEAD AND NECK SURGERY

WOMEN IN OTOLARYNGOLOGY – WIOME SESSION

The Women in Otolaryngology Middle East (WIOME) session aimed to inspire, encourage, and support women in the Middle East to achieve their full potential in their career paths, from training to working in the field of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery. It sought to empower them in achieving both their professional and personal goals.

CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS & SYMPOSIUMS

The conference featured a variety of scientific workshops and company-sponsored symposiums. The symposiums significantly added color to the overall program by incorporating the industry's diverse perspectives, specialized knowledge, and practical applications of the existing technology and new products.

HEINZ STAMMBERGER RESIDENT COMPETITION

There were various abstract competition categories featured at the conference.

The conference organizing committee was pleased to arrange the “Heinz Stammberger Resident Research Competition” on April 12 and 13, 2025.

The ME-OTO Academy sponsored the travel of 30 young otolaryngologists from around the globe, each receiving a sponsorship of USD 1,000 to cover expenses for travel, accommodation, and registration for attending the conference and presenting their research work.

Additionally, the top five best research papers presented were awarded the “Heinz Stammberger Resident Research Award” trophy along with a cash prize of USD 500 at the closing ceremony.

HEINZ STAMMBERGER RESIDENT COMPETITION WINNERS

The Winners of the Heinz Stammberger Resident Research Award, who received a trophy and cash prize of USD 500 along with the winner's certificate, were:

Winner: Tia Thomas

Topic: The Role of a Tracheostomy Care Training Module in Improving the Knowledge, Attitude and Practices among Nurses in High Dependency Units

Winner: Labiba Osama Abughazzah

Topic: A Comparison Study of Post-Operative Results in Obstructive Sleep Apnea Patients Preoperatively assessed with drug induced sleep endoscopy and awake endoscopy

Winner: Shrekha Padmakshan

Topic: Systematic Review Plus Meta-analysis Maximising Sinus Surgery Recovery: Bio – Resorbable Vs NonResorbable Nasal Packs

Winner: Kalyana Sundaram
Chithambaram

Topic: Innovative use of Indocyanine Green (ICG) Dye for Posterior Auricular Artery Visualization: Narrowing down the search of Facial nerve – A Prospective Pilot Study

Winner: Vivianne Landry

Topic: Effectiveness of Endolymphatic Duct Blockage Surgery in Patients with Meniere's disease: A Systematic Review

E-POSTER COMPETITION

The conference accepted more than 250 poster abstracts for the E-Poster competition. All accepted e-poster submitters were given a discounted registration fee and AED 500 cash to support their attendance.

The E-poster competition winners were awarded with an additional AED 1000 and a certificate.

E-POSTER WINNERS

Winner: Olga Stancheva

Topic: Isolated Sphenoid Sinus Fungus Ball: Anatomical Features Leading To Disease

Winner: Rasha Sami

Topic: Factors Influencing the Efficacy and Implementation of Teletherapy for Stuttering

Winner: Zeina Maria Semaan

Topic: Impact of Payer status on Patient Satisfaction in office-based Laryngeal Laser Surgery: A Case Study

LECTURE PROPOSAL

The abstract submission process was designed for professionals with significant expertise in a particular topic or subspecialty, providing them an opportunity to present their research as speakers, in addition to the invited faculty.

A total of 47 participants submitted their lecture proposals. Each submission included a lecture summary, which was thoroughly reviewed by the Scientific Committee. Based on the relevance and quality of the content, 10 speakers were selected and approved to present at the conference.

CONFERENCE EVALUATION

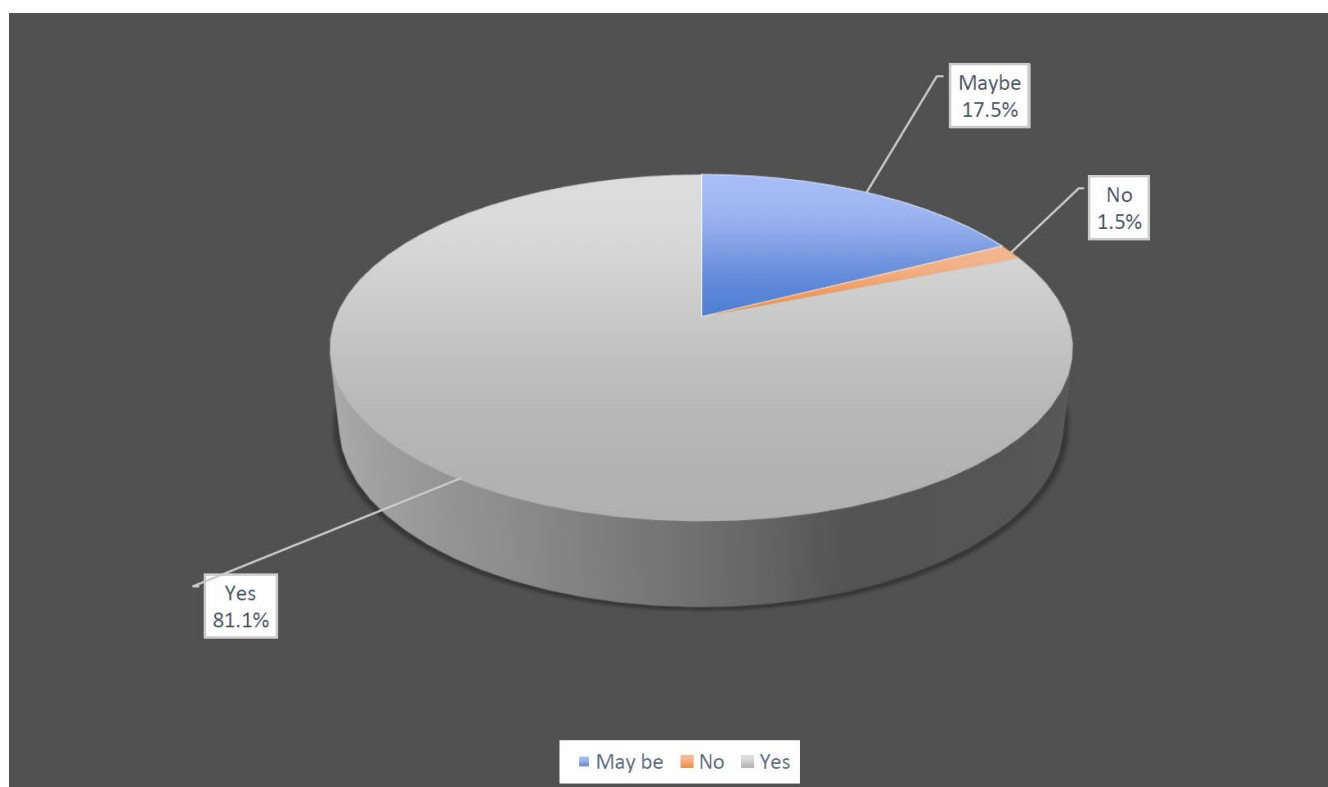

How would you rate the content of the 20th Annual Meeting of Middle East Academy of Otolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery?

How would you rate the overall relevancy of the conference content to your practice?

Do you plan to attend the 21st ME-OTO Academy Meeting on April 10 – 12, 2026?

What would you like us to do differently at the 21st edition in 2026?

Here are a few pieces of feedback voiced by our supportive audience. They have set very high expectations for the conference in the next edition in 2026, aiming to maintain balance while also striving for greater achievements:

- Despite the fact that some participants could not make it to come because some flights were cancelled, all attending participants were excellent. Schedule changes have been made efficiently. I think it has been an excellent congress. I have no suggestions to make. Thank you again
- Good
- Please include more panel discussions in your next meeting
- Interactive participation of attendees should be encouraged
- For all the participant to have a discussion session - 1 hour no more, a sharing session between the junior surgeon and senior consultant. This way more interactive and junior doctors are given opportunity to ask question and opinion
- Please add hands on training workshop sessions on Rhinology, Rhinoplasty, Otology, Laryngology, Head & Neck
- Live surgeries or videos of surgical procedures must be a part of every presentation with all basic steps to enhance surgical skill

- All has been set up perfectly and done in an excellent way
- Excellent meeting with more European , UK, USA speakers
- Recent and advanced techniques in otolaryngology
- To focus on the update of common ENT problems thank you for the great effort
- More practical clinically relevant Otology sessions. There was overemphasis on cochlear implants
- A formal meeting of people with a shared interest, typically one that takes place over several days and also includes more sessions of hands-on practice
- Well organized and on time. No flaws to point out
- The entire event was organized very well
- It's always good to have different ideas but in my opinion with presentation emphasis should be more and more surgical procedure to be presented its always there may be more to get more practical knowledge king of workshop style
- Cadaver workshop dissection demonstration in the program
- More advanced presentations.
- More audio vestibular sessions with physicians
- Absolutely good
- It is improving the format every time, thank you
- It was very good. I hope it continues as it is
- Keep The same will be excellent
- Everything is perfect. Please, go on at the same way. Thank you for your great effort
- Unusual clinical cases ,their diagnosis and management
- Introducing hands-on training sessions
- Excellent organization. I hope you continue your efforts and may be consider extra social activities.
- It was well organized despite the weather conditions that have caused some speakers not to attend and some
- changes in the schedule.
- This meeting exceeded my expectations and I am really glad that I got a chance to attend it. Maybe including short-duration workshops or practical sessions during the 3-day conference would be of benefit, especially to young ENT surgeons like me.
- Please go ahead with your amazing efforts and performances
- Appreciate more topics on vestibular rehabilitation and evidence based practices
- I suggest to focus more on the younger generation, and give them some sessions directed to them
- Thank you very much, the 19th meeting was amazing
- I think overall arrangements and presentations were very nice, I really appreciate and congratulate you on your successful event inspite of recent rain disaster in UAE
- Recent advances that are currently being made clinically in the modern world should be more included and clinically oriented cases should be included
- It's very helpful for new technology
- Very nice arrangement with good topics covered
- All arrangements were excellent, mostly i came and want to be part of it
- Thank you for all good organised academic event at great Dubai city
- Same as this year, include the most recent advancements and hands on sessions...

I am delighted to welcome you to the 20th Annual Meeting of the Middle East Academy of Otolaryngology (11-13 April, 2025), at the Intercontinental Dubai Festival City, UAE.

We are proud to have over 100 speakers regionally and internationally joining us to share their expertise and knowledge with the audience. The scientific program at this year's congress will include all branches within our growing specialty: Otorhinolaryngology, Rhinology and Endoscopy, Head and Neck Surgery, Laryngology, Head and Neck Surgery, Pediatric Otolaryngology, Facial Plastic Surgery as well as Audio-Vestibular Medicine.

Our newly introduced 'Head & Neck' lectures will give the attendees the opportunity to learn and learn treatment from focused sessions in the field. We will be holding additional workshops for our participants to have ample opportunity to learn in depth within different subspecialties. We are proud to continue our resident and young otolaryngologist competition, which will grant sponsorship to the top 30 otolaryngologists. Additionally, I encourage any practicing otolaryngologist with experience in their field and an interest to present, to apply through our lecture proposal category.

A recent addition to the academy is Women in Otolaryngology Middle East. A platform we are honored to share inspiring and empowering a future generation of female surgeons, and honoring those who led and achieved.

The congress will provide networking opportunities throughout the event and in addition to the coveted spots at the annual Dais Dinner, which was hosted at the Museum of the Future at our 19th Annual Meeting. There will be time to explore and discover the many wonders of the city of Dubai during your stay.

I look forward to meeting you at our 20th Annual Meeting of the Middle East Academy of Otolaryngology in the ever-evolving city of Dubai. I invite you to participate and join in all this meeting has to offer.
